FOREWORD

The purpose of this book is to bring the Eisenhart families up to date on the branch of Peter and Anna Eisenhart only.

I will give a brief rundown of the Eisenhart Ancestry for those who do not have the book, "Ancestry of the John Franklin Eisenhart Family," by Willis Wolf Eisenhart.

The information in this book was provided by members of each family presented herein.

Mistakes always creep into work of this kind and I hope you will be able to forgive me.

I am deeply grateful and thankful to all my cousins who so kindly helped make this book possible.

I am using the number system in order that you can trace back to your own family lines.

The abbreviations I used are as follows:

- b. — Born
- c. — Child or Children
- d. — Died
- dau. — Daughter
- im. — Immigrant
- l. — Living
- m. — Married

Ruth Madeline Eisenhart, daughter of Robert and Effie Wagner Eisenhart was born Friday morning, May 30, 1919 in an old farm house along the Susquehanna Trail north of York, Pa. When 10 months old the family moved to a farm which lay about 2 miles from there between Roundtown and Foustown.

There she lived with her parents until she was 23 years old before leaving home to make a living for herself.

She worked in several factories for a few years before going to Beauty school to be a Hairdresser.

She has been in business for herself since 1950 in York, Pa.

She has traveled over most of the U. S. A. and collected over a thousand Seashells.

INTRODUCTION

From The General Notes of George W. Eisenhart, Sr.

The Eisenhart family originated in Germany. The oldest records available relate to an Eisenhart during the reign of Karl The Great, (Charlmgagne) year 775 A.D. The Bavarian Eisenharts were Knights; this is supported by considerable evidence, the mere implication of the name Eisenhart, which in German means hard as iron, would hardly be assumed in feudal times without an army to support such a boast.

Many Eisenharts since early times have served their generations in both church and State. Those who immigrated to America in 1751 descended in direct line from an Ancestor who was born before 1559.

The major portion of credit for this ancestry must surely go to Willis Wolf Eisenhart of Abbottstown, Pa., Author of Ancestry of the John Franklin Eisenhart Families. He spent years of his time, effort and money in the search for these facts. A search which took him to Europe and other distant points. The one sad part of his search abroad is that in his endeavor to find the exact origin in Germany of our Ancestor Conrad, he instead found the origin of the other Immigrant Andrea Eisenhart. There is nothing to substantiate the relationship between Conrad and Andrea at this time. It is hoped that the mystery of Conrad's early family will some day be revealed and help completion of the history.

Conrad Eisenhard The 1st settled in York, Pa. where he worked as a Blacksmith as did his son Conrad Jr. after him.

All Eisenharts today are Sons and Daughters of the American Revolution.

Conrad Eisenhart Sr. served in the Revolutionary War as Second Class:
Conrad Eisenhart

Assigned, Sept. 6, 1777, Brandywine Campaign; July 14, 1778,
Standing stone.

Under Captain Emanuel Herman of the Fifth Company of the Second Battalion.

Associators and Militia of York County, Pa.
